OFFICE OF
INSPECTOR GENERAL OF EDUCATION IN MYSORE

Bangalore, Dated 1st Novr 1899

No 3913-14
160

From

H J BHABHA, Esq,
Inspector General of Education in Mysore,

To The Secretary to the Government of Mysore in the Revenue and General Departments

SIR,

Edn 5-99-5 With reference to para 2 of Order No 36 dated 21st October 1899 I have the honour to inform you that Mr T R Venkatasawmy Naidu availed himself from the 22nd August 1899 of the privilege leave of one month and sixteen days at first granted to him by Notification No 1577 - Ed 58 - dated 2nd Aug. 1899 + Edn 5-99-2 When he availed himself of the leave he said he would be able to -

to return to duty before the expiration of the leave, should Government decide to transfer the office to Bangalore When however he was informed of the Order of Government transferring the office he pleaded inability to return and applied for an extension of leave which has been granted by Order Camp No 36 dated ~ 21st October 1899 Under these Circumstances, as the most Satisfactory and economical arrangement I recommended that Mr C Vasudevah Manager of the Office might in addition to his own duties be placed in charge of the current duties of Assistant as he was fully qualified to discharge them if an officer from any other Station than Mysore had been appointed it would have been necessary to give him Rs 45 as acting allowance for the first thirty days under Section 82 of the Service Regulations and Rs 60 a month in any case for the x Under Art 81 this can be allowed only in exceptional cases where there is absolutely no officer available on the spot so to speak saving Rs 45 ? ? no account in the Sec

Remark applies to Rs 60/- as no such acting arrangement is permissible.

the remaining two months calculated on the minimum pay of Rs 300 of Mr Venkatasawmy Naidu At the same time it would have been necessary to appoint someone on the last class of the acting officer which would have entailed an additional cost up to Rs 100 a month Taking all these facts into consideration on receipt of Mr Venkatasawmy Naidu's application for extension of leave, I appointed a graduate who has failed in the B L Examination temporarily on Rs 30 a month in anticipation of sanction from the 7th October 1899 This is the most economical arrangement I could make and has further the merit of not disturbing the work of any other officer I request therefore that the temporary appointment of an additional hand on Rs 30 during the absence of Mr Venkatasawmy Naidu on leave may be sanctioned from the 7th October last.

Not under act 8 of 1886 promotions may not be given as such action from the Government should be obtained

Grade except when the temporary vacancy lasts for a long time in which case sanction of the Govt. must be obtained

2 Mr C Vasudeviah has had very hard work to do during the absence of Mr Venkatasawmy Naidu both in and out of office hours He has been overworked and is already ill I recommend that under Section 107, a charge allowance of Rs 30 calculated at 10 per cent on Rs 300, the minimum pay of Mr Venkatasawmy Naidu, may also be sanctioned for Mr Vasudeviah from the 22nd September 1899, nothing being paid to him for the first thirty days of Mr Venkatasawmy Naidu's absence in accordance with Sections 82 and 85 of the Service Regulations.

I have the honour to be
